Even longer palate, chocolate brownies, creme caramel.
Pappy Van Winkle Family Reserve 23yr	47.8%	£50
Spicy and dry, hints of rancio, worn leather, and vanilla.
Rowan's Creek	50.05%	£15
The "younger sister" of Noah's Mill, spicy and rye-heavy, with orange, cherries and oak.
Stagg Jr.	66.05%	£16
Big and powerful, short and sharp, punchy and bold, Stagg Jr. is inimitable.

AMERICAN
BOURBON

Van Winkle Special Reserve 12yr Lot B	45.2%	£25
The oft-overlooked runt of the Pappy litter, it is a spectacular example of how to age bourbon for over 10 years without over-casking it.
Weller Special Reserve	45%	£11
The most approachable of the wheated Buffalo Trace range, this is soft, well-rounded and incredibly mixable.
Wild Turkey 101	50.5%	£9.5
Aged for at least 6 years and bottled just below cask strength, this has plenty of spice, hints of toffee and caramel.
Wild Turkey Longbranch	43%	£12
Famously collaborating with Matthew McConaughey, it is eight years old and filtered through mesquite charcoal and tastes of honey and black pepper.
Wild Turkey Rare Breed	56.4%	£14
Cask strength and rye-heavy, big chocolate and burnt toast notes.
William Larue Weller 2016	67.1%	£30
The standout of 2016's Antique Collection, this has plenty of punch but has so much depth and a long, long finish.

AMERICAN
BOURBON

William Larue Weller 2017	64.1%	£30
A more subtle expression than the 2016, it still has all the classic Weller nuttiness and a hot alcohol kick.
W. L. Weller 12yr	45%	£15
Sourced from a different warehouse to the Pappy range, but more or less identical in every other way. Rich and luscious, peaches and cream.
Woodford Reserve	43.2%	£9
Mixed nuts, autumn leaves, blackberries and sawdust.
Woodford Reserve Double Oaked	43.2%	£14
Dairy Milk bars, molasses, flint and toffee.
Wyoming Whiskey	44%	£14.5
A great all-rounder from a relatively "new" bourbon state.

AMERICAN
RYE

Bulleit	45%	£9.5
A young and spicy all-rounder, notes of red berries.
Catoctin Creek Roundstone Rye	46%	£12
A fresh Virginia rye with hints of spearmint and ginger.
Colonel E. H. Taylor	50%	£20
A great bonded rye from Buffalo Trace. Dried bergamot peel, parfait amour and butterscotch.
FEW	46.5%	£15
A well-rounded offering from Chicago's FEW distillery, this has hints of arrack and unripe banana.
Hudson Manhattan Rye	46%	£14
Very young (too young in fact to be properly classed as whiskey) but aged in tiny barrels so has all the characteristics of a much older distillate. Pre-prohibition style.
Michter's Single Barrel Straight Rye	42.4%	£14
A great value rye, bold and rounded, hints of dry curaçao and chamomile.

AMERICAN
RYE

Old Overholt	40%	£10
Very soft and light, mild and delicate.
Pikesville / 2000s Presentation	40%	£17
This is a discontinued bottling that is very different to the current Pikesville - this is the lighter, more approachable version of what is now Rittenhouse.
Rittenhouse	50%	£10
The stalwart. Great balance, good heat, fantastic for every use,
Sazerac	45%	£14
Fun and fruity, candied ginger, citrus peels.
Sazerac 18yr 2016	45%	£30
Massive oak influence, waves of leather, tobacco, a touch of dustiness.
Sazerac 18yr 2017	45%	£30
Drier than the 2016, great length, still that signature spice and oak.

AMERICAN
RYE

Thomas H. Handy Sazerac 2016	63.1%	£30
The frequently overlooked runt of Buffalo Trace's Antique Collection, it is the youngest of the batch but the most consistent. Strong, spicy and long.
Thomas H. Handy Sazerac 2017	63.6%	£30
Long, fruity and creamy. Waves of toffee and coconut.
Thomas H. Handy Sazerac 2018	63.4%	£30
Almost unanimously everyone's favourite of the 2018 BTACs, outperforming even the Stagg and the Weller. Long and buttery, clover honeyed and sweet.

AMERICAN
TENNESSEE

Jack Daniel's No. 7	40%	£9
You know what this tastes like; banana bread, camphor and rubber.
Jack Daniel's Single Barrel	45%	£12.5
This famously varies from barrel to barrel, but will always have that signature oaky banana Jack Daniel style.
Uncle Nearest 9yr 1856	50%	£13
Bonded from an undisclosed distillery (Dickel), the 1856 version claims to hark from a recipe found a decade before Jack Daniels began. Classic Tennessee style, complex and sweet.

AMERICAN CORN

Balcones Baby Blue	46%	£15
Pioneering Texas distillery Balcones make a range of whiskies but are most famous for their blue corn offerings. This stalwart is soft, sweet and rich.
Balcones Brimstone	53%	£16
A corn distillate that they then barbeque smoke, this process technically disqualifies it from being a legal whiskey, but the results are unique and wonderful.
Mellow Corn	50%	£10
Heaven Hill's bonded corn whiskey, a firm bartenders' favourite. Waxy, with a controlled heat and good body.

AMERICAN
SINGLE MALT

Balcones Single Malt	53%	£16
Made exclusively from Texan malted barley and barreled in ex-bourbon casks, this really rivals anything made in Scotland.
Westland Peated	46%	£15
Even rarer than an American single malt is a peated American single malt made in Seattle! Similar to a maritime Islay, it is deep and complex.
Westland Sherry Wood	46%	£15
Nutty and woody as you'd expect from a sherry wood, with very pronounced toasted hazelnuts on the finish.

AMERICAN WHEAT

Bernheim Original	45%	£14
The first, and still one of the very few, straight wheat whiskeys on the market today, expect a distinct brioche note, with a nutty sweetness.

AMERICAN
SOUR MASH

Michter's Original Sour Mash Whiskey	43%	£14
A mixed grain mash bill with not enough corn to be a bourbon, not enough rye to be a rye, this is a wonderful example of how different grains make up a whiskey.
Michter's Unblended American Whiskey	41.7%	£14
Aged in both new and used casks so technically not a bourbon, it is corn heavy but with additional woody vanilla notes.
Smooth Ambler Old Scout 107	53.5%	£15
A blend of two whiskeys, one a bourbon, and one aged in ex-bourbon casks, and bottled at 107 proof, it has plenty pepper spice, gingerbread and nutmeg.
Wild Turkey Forgiven	45.5%	£16
A mix of both bourbon and rye whiskeys, canonically initially blended by accident, but the result was so good they bottled it.

IRISH
SINGLE MALT

Bushmills 10yr	40%	£10
Stone fruits, brazil nuts and marzipan.
Bushmills 16yr	40%	£19
Matured in bourbon, port and sherry casks, it is full of ripe strawberries, Ceylon cinnamon and tree bark.
Connemara	40%	£10
A rare peated Irish from Cooley, it is distinctly different from peated scotches. Much more seaside and salty than medicinal and smoky.
Connemara Turf Mór	46%	£14
More peaty and concentrated than the Original, it has a distinct earthiness and citrusy-coriander brightness.
Dunville's Very Rare 10yr PX Cask	46%	£14
A recreation of a mothballed whiskey, this is full of raisins, crème brûlée and clove.
Knappogue Castle 12yr	40%	£14
A now-permanent expression in the range, this is apricots, peaches and warm spice.

IRISH
SINGLE MALT

Knappogue Castle 14yr	46%	£18
Much like the 12yr but finished in sherry casks, think similar stone fruits but with an added injection of nuts and berries.
Knappogue Castle 1995	40%	£17
A rare vintage bottled in 2007, it is delicate, malty and soft.
Locke's 8yr	46%	£10
A properly subtle dram, floral with hints of cereal, cooking apples and beer mash.
Method & Madness Single Malt	46%	£14.5
Made at Midleton's "micro" distillery, finished in French limousin casks, notes of peanut butter, banana and toffee.
Sexton Single Malt	40%	£10
A great all-rounder, nutty, sweet, malty, balanced.
Single Malt Irish Whiskey #1 13yr Batch 2 / TBWC	48.4%	£16
The famous "My Lovely Horse" bottling, this is a firm Swift favourite. Citrussy, bright, stone fruits, long.

IRISH
SINGLE MALT

Single Malt Irish Whiskey #2 14yr Batch 1 / TBWC	48.6%	£17
Another famous bottling, "Jog On Aeneas" is a true sherry bomb!
Teeling Single Malt	46%	£12.5
Aged in five different styles of cask so surprisingly delicate, aromas of muscat grapes and a genteel florality.
Tyrconnell Port Finish	46%	£17
Woody and bright, but with a rich, jammy palate.

IRISH
SINGLE POT STILL

Green Spot	40%	£10.5
Cereal notes, hints of Softmints, plenty of vanilla.
Green Spot Château Montelena Finish	46%	£16
Utilising previously-used Zinfandel casks to create a sweet and complex tropical whiskey.
Green Spot Léoville-Barton Finish	46%	£13
Warm, dry red fruits make way for classic cereal vanilla familiarity.
Method & Madness Single Pot Still	46%	£14.5
Uniquely finished in chestnut wood to give a dry chocolate note, alongside powdered ginger and delicate tannins.
Midleton Barry Crockett's Legacy	46%	£22
A wonderful sign off for Midleton's previous Master Distiller, Barry Crockett, it is a proper showpiece of Irish whiskey.
Midleton Dair Ghaelach Grinsell's Wood Tree 7	57.9%	£25
Aged in virgin Irish oak, so rare the trees can be individually identified. Expect spice, tablet, a hint of chocolate, and a touch of tinned pineapple.

IRISH
SINGLE POT STILL

Paddy Centenary	43%	£18
A seven-year-old limited release showcasing what Paddy Irish whiskey was like at the turn of the 20th century. Bold, and bright, full of stewed pears and buttered croissants.
Power's John's Lane	46%	£13
Oaky and sherried, wonderfully complex, a fantastic distillate.
Red Spot	46%	£18
A brilliant whiskey made from whiskeys aged for 15 years in bourbon, sherry and marsala casks, hints of diluted Ribena and sloeberries.
Redbreast 12yr	40%	£11.5
The benchmark Single Pot Still Irish whiskey. Full of sherry, red berries, vanilla and peaches.
Redbreast 12yr Cask Strength	57.2%	£18
Full-bodied, oily, and just generally bigger and more than the 12-year-old.
Redbreast 15yr	46%	£16
A wholly different animal to its younger brother, it is longer, more tropical and creamier.

IRISH
SINGLE POT STILL

Redbreast 21yr	46%	£23
A sweet-tart tropical bomb! Passionfruit, guava and nectarines everywhere.
Redbreast Lustau	46%	£12.5
Candied orange peel, Sherbet Dip-Dabs and Christmas mince pies.
Yellow Spot	46%	£16
Madagascan vanilla, apricot jam and frangipane.

IRISH
SINGLE GRAIN

Method & Madness Single Grain	46%	£11
Oaky and sweet, soft marzipan and pomelo.
Teeling Single Grain	46%	£12.5
Corn husks and wheat fields, but with a hint of lingonberry and milky porridge.

IRISH

BLENDED

Bushmills Black Bush	40%	£9
A great versatile dram; clean and nutty, mixable or neat.
Dead Rabbit	44%	£10
A collaboration between the famous NYC bar and Dublin Liberties distillery, a five-year-old blend with notes of pepper, mace and demerara sugar.
Jameson	40%	£9
Accounting for more than half of all Irish whiskey produced, notes of cut grass, breakfast pastries and apples.
Jameson Black Barrel	40%	£10
Finished in extra-charred barrels (hence the name), this gives additional toasty notes and body, and a delicate coconut finish.
Jameson Caskmates Stout Edition	40%	£9.5
A range of coffee and chocolate notes swirl alongside classic grassy Jameson.
J. J. Corry The Kelly / Milroy's of Soho	50%	£17
An incredibly rare blend made for our friends round the corner, made of one grain and three single malts, one of which harks back to 2003. Stunningly balanced and rounded.

IRISH

BLENDED

Midleton Very Rare 2018	40%	£22
The 35th Edition of MVR is one of the best in recent history; caramel tart, flambéed bananas, Sugar Puffs.
Power's Gold Label	43.2%	£9
If you've ever been in a pub anywhere, you've seen this. Famous and rightly so. Cereal, pears and Kinder Bueno.
Slane	40%	£9
Soft, easy-going and mild, a great breakfast blend.
Tullamore DEW	40%	£9
Distinctly soft, stewed peaches and apricots, grassy and cereal.
Tullamore DEW / 1980s Presentation	40%	£12.5
More pot still in the blend, yet still softer and more rounded than the modern iteration.
Tullamore DEW Phoenix	55%	£14
Cask strength and punchy, potent, spicy and oily.

IRISH
BLENDED

Tullamore DEW XO Caribbean Cask	43%	£10
Sweet and slightly rubbery, but in a great way. Over-ripe bananas and grenadine.

JAPANESE
SINGLE MALT

Ichiro's Malt Chichibu 2018 London Edition	56.5%	£35
A one-off bottling from the seemingly-invincible Chichibu distillery. This is elegant and delicate, but with a steely backbone.
Ichiro's Malt Chichibu 2019 London Edition	48.5%	£35
Softer than the 2018 edition yet more rounded. Ripe fruit, apple pie and baked cinnamon.
Nikka Miyagikyo Single Malt	45%	£16
Warm and rich, buttery and chewy, sherried and rounded.
Nikka Yoichi Single Malt	45%	£16
Nikka's proprietary smoky malt is both peaty and salty, yet subtle and nuanced.
Nikka Yoichi / 2000s Presentation	43%	£17
Slightly younger and lighter than its more recent counterpart, but the signature Yoichi smoke and spice are ever-present.
Suntory Hakushu 12yr	43%	£21
The first "international" Japanese single malt that showed the world what the country was capable of producing. Bold, grassy and nutty, with hints of applewood smoke.

JAPANESE
SINGLE MALT

Suntory Hakushu Distiller's Reserve	43%	£14.5
Created to cover the increasing demand of the 12-year-old, this is younger but still has the warming, smoky, honeyed characteristics of the original.
Suntory Yamazaki 12yr	43%	£18
Delicate and sweet, notes of cloves and assam tea, with candied lemon peels and a hint of toasted sugar cane.

JAPANESE

PURE MALT

Ichiro's Malt Wine Wood Reserve	46%	£20
Distilled at the long-dead Hanyu distillery, finished in red wine casks. Big and oily, hints of toasted sesame seeds and a tannic red berry palate.
Mars Lamigo Monkey Yokoso!!	48%	£16
A limited edition named after one of Taiwan's best baseball teams and rumoured to have a small amount of Tobermory blended in, this is full of cereal and ripe blackberries.
Mars Maltage Cosmo	43%	£16
Shinshu distillery's flagship whisky, oaky and fruity, Werthers Originals and a touch of milk chocolate.
Nikka Pure Malt Black	43%	£15
Smoky and sweet, a blended malt from both Yoichi and Miyagikyo.
Nikka Pure Malt Red	43%	£15
Fruity and soft, predominantly Miyagikyo with a touch of Yoichi.
Nikka Taketsuru Pure Malt	43%	£14
A wonderfully complex whisky named after the company's founder. Dairy Milk, black pepper and coffee.

JAPANESE

PURE MALT

Nikka Taketsuru Pure Malt 17yr	43%	£22
Incredibly rare and much sought-after, woody and sweet with notes of cacao and pepper.
Nikka Taketsuru Pure Malt 21yr	43%	£40
Winner of World's Best Blended Malt back in 2010, it has more pronounced coffee and chocolate and has a remarkable length.
Yamazakura 963 8yr	59%	£15
A fantastic cask strength offering from Sasa-no-kawa distillery. Floral, honeyed, slightly orangey, with a big alcohol spicy backbone.

JAPANESE

SINGLE GRAIN

Nikka Coffey Grain	45%	£14
Buttery and sweet, notes of citrus. Like drinking a lemon cheesecake.
Nikka Coffey Malt	45%	£14
Technically a grain whisky due to its production method, but using all malted barley, this is a truly unique drop. Lighter in style than a traditional single malt but with all the cereal characteristics.
Suntory The Chita	43%	£14
Sugar Puffs, honey and brown sugar, citrusy on the palate and a touch of melon.

JAPANESE
BLENDED

Japanese Blended Whisky #1 21yr / TBWC	47.9%	£25
A limited release of malt and grain from an undisclosed distillery, a hint of leather, marzipan and amontillado sherry.
Mars Fubuki 2018	40%	£16
Translating to “snow storm”, this is clean and light and fruity.
Mars Tsunagu Blended Whisky	46%	£16
Created for high-end Japanese department store Isetan, it is lightly peated, giving subtle bacon on the palate, alongside uncooked dough, cherry blossom and liquorice.
Nikka From The Barrel	51.4%	£13
The go-to Japanese whisky, spicy and punchy, fruity and malty; a great all-rounder.
Suntory Hibiki Japanese Harmony	43%	£16
Arguably also the go-to Japanese whisky, but more soft and sweet. Orchard fruits, buttery pastry and brown sugar.

WORLD
AUSTRALIA

Starward	43%	£13
Australia has a burgeoning domestic whisky industry but very few make it internationally. Starward's flagship malt is rich and sherried with hints of poached pear.

CANADA

Crown Royal Northern Harvest Rye	45%	£13
An approachable, delicate dram. Controversially voted World's Best Whisky in Jim Murray's Whisky Bible in 2016.
Lot 40 Rye	43%	£9
A classic Canadian rye, good spice and length, but still soft. A breakfast whisky if there ever was one.

WORLD
DENMARK

Stauning 2011 Peated 4th Edition	53.1%	£16
Smoky and young, a touch of peat but with a green-ness still, spearmint and a hint of Indian spice.
Stauning 2013 Young Rye	50.1%	£16
Only three years old, this has plenty character. Lots of heat, cereals, a hint of acetone, freshly baked bread.

WORLD
ENGLAND

Adnams Triple Malt	47%	£9.5
Predominantly wheat grain, but also barley and oats in the mash bill. Complex and youthful, cinnamon porridge, gingerbread and pepper. A great introduction into whisky from the beer-makers.
The Norfolk Farmers Single Grain	45%	£14.5
A multi-grain offering made in the Cotswolds, it is soft and warming with hints of stone fruit.
The Norfolk Parched Single Grain	45%	£14.5
An entirely different grain mash-bill to the farmers, this is buttery popcorn and salted liquorice.

FRANCE

Kornog Taouarc'h Trived Peated	46%	£16
One of Glann ar Mor's peated expressions, this is a streaky bacon sandwich at the seaside.

WORLD
INDIA

Amrut Fusion	50%	£14
Made from barley from both India and Scotland, hence the name. Powerful and fruity, oaky and chocolatey, with a touch of peat.
Amrut Intermediate Sherry	57.1%	£15
Hot and sweet, earthy, notes of tobacco. Wet oak, slightly musty. Hints of agricole. Fruity finish.
Amrut Naarangi	50%	£20
Aged in barrels that previously held sherry and orange peel, this is distinctly citrusy. Orange marmalade, kumquats, Grand Marnier, but with malty undertones and spice.
Amrut Peated Cask Strength	62.8%	£16
Powerful and chunky. Peat smoke immediately, lots of heat, but followed by creaminess and crème brûlée.
Amrut Portonova	62.1%	£16
Jammy and rich, timur pepper and hot spices, dry cranberries to finish.
Amrut Single Malt	46%	£12
Sawdust and cumin, plenty vanilla, cereal and apples.

WORLD
SWEDEN

Mackmyra Big Daddy Rotspon Triple Wood	53.5%	£21
A collaboration between Sweden's biggest distillery, and von Have, Hamburg's oldest winery. Incredibly rare and finished in red wine casks.
