Pappy Van Winkle Family Reserve 20yr	45.2%	£43
Even longer palate, chocolate brownies, creme caramel.
Pappy Van Winkle Family Reserve 23yr	47.8%	£57
Spicy and dry, hints of rancio, worn leather, and vanilla.
Rowan's Creek	50.05%	£17
The "younger sister" of Noah's Mill, spicy and rye-heavy, with orange, cherries and oak.
Stagg Jr.	66.05%	£34
Big and powerful, short and sharp, punchy and bold, Stagg Jr. is inimitable.

AMERICAN
BOURBON

Van Winkle Special Reserve 12yr Lot B	45.2%	£27
The oft-overlooked runt of the Pappy litter, it is a spectacular example of how to age bourbon for over 10 years without over-casking it.
Weller Special Reserve	45%	£13
The most approachable of the wheated Buffalo Trace range, this is soft, well-rounded and incredibly mixable.
Wild Turkey 101	50.5%	£11
Aged for at least 6 years and bottled just below cask strength, this has plenty spice, hints of toffee and caramel.
Wild Turkey Longbranch	43%	£11
A lighter, easy-drinking example from the Wild Turkey distillery. Alright, alright, alright!
William Larue Weller 2017	64.1%	£34
A more subtle expression than the 2016, it still has all the classic Weller nuttiness and a hot alcohol kick.

AMERICAN
BOURBON

William Larue Weller 2018	62.8%	£34
Another sensational wheated dram from the BTAC collection, it has all the signature Weller notes of toffee & salted marconas.
Woodford Reserve	43.2%	£11
Mixed nuts, autumn leaves, blackberries and sawdust.
Woodford Reserve Double Oaked	43.2%	£16
Dairy Milk bars, molasses, flint and toffee.
Wyoming Whiskey	44%	£17
A great all-rounder from a relatively "new" bourbon state.

AMERICAN

RYE

Bulleit	45%	£11
A young and spicy all-rounder, notes of red berries.
Catoctin Creek Roundstone Rye	46%	£14
A fresh Virginia rye with hints of spearmint and ginger.
FEW	46.5%	£17
A well-rounded offering from Chicago's FEW distillery, this has hints of arrack and unripe banana.
High West Double Rye!	46%	£14
A combination of a young, 2-year-old rye blended with a hint of 16-year-old for depth.
Hudson Manhattan Rye	46%	£16
Very young (too young in fact to be properly classed as whiskey) but aged in tiny barrels so has all the characteristics of a much older distillate. Pre-prohibition style.
Michter's Single Barrel Straight Rye	42.4%	£16
A great value rye, bold and rounded, hints of dry curacao and chamomile.

AMERICAN

RYE

Old Overholt	40%	£11
Very soft and light, mild and delicate.
Pikesville / 2000s Presentation	40%	£17
This is a discontinued bottling that is very different to the current Pikesville - this is the lighter, more approachable version of what is now Rittenhouse.
Rittenhouse	50%	£11
The stalwart. Great balance, good heat, fantastic for every use,
Sazerac	45%	£16
Fun and fruity, candied ginger, citrus peels.
Sazerac 18yr 2016	45%	£34
Massive oak influence, waves of leather, tobacco, a touch of dustiness.
Sazerac 18yr 2017	45%	£34
Drier than the 2016, great length, still that signature spice and oak.

AMERICAN
RYE

Thomas H. Handy Sazerac 2016	63.1%	£34
The frequently overlooked runt of Buffalo Trace's Antique Collection, it is the youngest of the batch but the most consistent. Strong, spicy and long.
Thomas H. Handy Sazerac 2017	63.6%	£34
Long, fruity and creamy. Waves of toffee and coconut.
Thomas H. Handy Sazerac 2018	63.4%	£34
Almost unanimously everyone's favourite of the 2018 BTACs, outperforming even the Stagg and the Weller. Long and buttery, clover honeyed and sweet.
Woodford Reserve	45.2%	£11
A rye-dominant mashbill from the stalwart. Citrussy, bright and peppery.

AMERICAN
TENNESSEE

Jack Daniel's No. 7	40%	£9
You know what this tastes like; banana bread and regret.
Jack Daniel's Single Barrel	45%	£14
This famously varies from barrel to barrel, but will always have that signature oaky banana Jack Daniel style.
Uncle Nearest 9yr 1856	50%	£15
Bonded from an undisclosed distillery (Dickel), the 1856 version claims to hark from a recipe found a decade before Jack Daniels began. Classic Tennessee style, complex and sweet.

AMERICAN
CORN

Balcones Baby Blue	46%	£17
A young corn whiskey from this pioneering Texas distillery, rich and buttery.
Mellow Corn	50%	£11
Heaven Hill's bonded corn whiskey, a firm bartenders' favourite. Waxy, with a controlled heat and good body.

AMERICAN
SINGLE MALT

Balcones Single Malt	53%	£18
Made exclusively from Texan malted barley and barreled in ex-bourbon casks, this really rivals anything made in Scotland.
Westland Peated	46%	£17
Even rarer than an American single malt is a peated American single malt made in Seattle! Similar to a maritime Islay, it is deep and complex.
Westland Sherry Wood	46%	£17
Nutty and woody as you'd expect from a sherry wood, with very pronounced toasted hazelnuts on the finish.

AMERICAN WHEAT

Bernheim Original	45%	£16
The first, and still one of the very few, straight wheat whiskeys on the market today, expect a distinct brioche note, with a nutty sweetness.
Woodford Reserve	45.2%	£11
A new addition to the Woodford family is this wheat-heavy whiskey, which also has corn, malted barley and rye in its mashbill.

AMERICAN
SOUR MASH

Michter's Original Sour Mash Whiskey	43%	£16
A mixed grain mash bill with not enough corn to be a bourbon, not enough rye to be a rye, this is a wonderful example of how different grains make up a whiskey.
Michter's Unblended American Whiskey	41.7%	£16
Aged in both new and used casks so technically not a bourbon, it is corn heavy but with additional woody vanilla notes.
Smooth Ambler Old Scout American Whiskey	49.5%	£17
Aged in both new and used casks, and with whiskeys from both Indiana and Tennessee, this is a softer version of its brother.
Smooth Ambler Old Scout 107	53.5%	£17
A blend of two whiskeys, one a bourbon, and one aged in ex-bourbon casks, and bottled at 107 proof, it has plenty pepper spice, gingerbread and nutmeg.
Wild Turkey Forgiven	45.5%	£18
A mix of both bourbon and rye whiskeys, canonically initially blended by accident, but the result was so good they bottled it.

IRISH
SINGLE MALT

Bushmills 10yr	40%	£11
Stone fruits, brazil nuts and marzipan.
Bushmills 12yr Distillery Reserve	40%	£16
Peaches, apricot jam and Weetabix!
Bushmills 16yr	40%	£22
Matured in bourbon, port and sherry casks, it is full of ripe strawberries, Ceylon cinnamon and tree bark.
Dunville's Very Rare 12yr PX Cask	46%	£16
A recreation of a mothballed whiskey, this is full of raisins, crème brûlée and clove.
Knappogue Castle 12yr	43%	£16
A now-permanent expression in the range, this is apricots, peaches and warm spice.
Knappogue Castle 1995	40%	£19
A rare vintage bottled in 2007, it is delicate, malty and soft.

IRISH
SINGLE MALT

Method & Madness Single Malt	46%	£17
Made at Middleton's "micro" distillery, finished in French limousin casks, notes of peanut butter, banana and toffee.
Blue Spot	58.7%	£17
7 years old and drawn from a variety of bourbon, sherry, and Madeira casks. Creamy & nutty with a lingering spiciness.
Sexton Single Malt	40%	£11
A great all-rounder, nutty, sweet, malty, balanced.
Single Malt Irish Whiskey #1 13yr Batch 2 / TBWC	48.4%	£18
The famous "My Lovely Horse" bottling, this is a firm Swift favourite. Citrussy, bright, stone fruits, long.
Single Malt Irish Whiskey #2 14yr Batch 1 / TBWC	48.6%	£19
Another famous bottling, "Jog On Aeneas" is a true sherry bomb!
Teeling Single Malt	46%	£14
Aged in five different styles of cask so surprisingly delicate, aromas of muscat grapes and a genteel florality.

IRISH
SINGLE POT STILL

Tyrconnell Port Finish	46%	£19
Woody and bright, but with a rich, jammy palate.
Green Spot		£12
Cereal notes, hints of Softmints, plenty of vanilla.
Green Spot Château Montelena Finish	46%	£18
Utilising previously-used Zinfandel casks to create a sweet and complex tropical whiskey.
Green Spot Léoville-Barton Finish	46%	£15
Warm, dry red fruits make way for classic cereal vanilla familiarity.
Method & Madness Single Pot Still	46%	£17
Uniquely finished in chestnut wood to give a dry chocolate note, alongside powdered ginger and delicate tannins.
Midleton Barry Crockett's Legacy	46%	£25
A wonderful sign off for Midleton's previous Master Distiller, Barry Crockett, it is a proper showpiece of Irish whiskey.

IRISH
SINGLE POT STILL

Power's John's Lane	46%	£15
Oaky and sherried, wonderfully complex, a fantastic distillate.
Red Spot	46%	£21
A brilliant whiskey made from whiskeys aged for 15 years in bourbon, sherry and marsala casks, hints of diluted Ribena and sloeberries.
Redbreast 12yr	40%	£13
The benchmark Single Pot Still Irish whiskey. Full of sherry, red berries, vanilla and peaches.
Redbreast 12yr Cask Strength	57.2%	£21
Full-bodied, oily, and just generally bigger and more than the 12-year-old.
Redbreast 15yr	46%	£18
A wholly different animal to its younger brother, it is longer, more tropical and creamier.
Redbreast 21yr	46%	£26
A sweet-tart tropical bomb! Passionfruit, guava and nectarines everywhere.

IRISH
SINGLE POT STILL

Redbreast Lustau	46%	£14
Candied orange peel, Sherbet Dip-Dabs and Christmas mince pies.
Yellow Spot	46%	£18
Madagascan vanilla, apricot jam and frangipane.

IRISH
SINGLE GRAIN

Method & Madness Single Grain	46%	£13
Oaky and sweet, soft marzipan and pomelo.
Teeling Single Grain	46%	£14
Corn husks and wheat fields, but with a hint of lingonberry and milky porridge.

IRISH

BLENDED

Bushmills Black Bush	40%	£10
A great versatile dram; clean and nutty, mixable or neat.
Jameson	40%	£10
Accounting for more than half of all Irish whiskey produced, notes of cut grass, breakfast pastries and apples.
Jameson 18yr	40%	£25
A harmonious, well-rounded dram; soft and delicate but wonderfully complex.
Jameson Black Barrel	40%	£11
Finished in extra-charred barrels (hence the name), this gives additional toasty notes and body, and a delicate coconut finish.
Jameson Caskmates Stout Edition	40%	£11
A range of coffee and chocolate notes swirl alongside classic grassy Jameson.
J. J. Corry The Kelly / Milroy's of Soho	50%	£19
An incredibly rare blend made for our friends round the corner, made of one grain and three single malts, one of which harks back to 2003. Stunningly balanced and rounded.

IRISH
BLENDED

Midleton Very Rare 2020	40%	£25
The 37th Edition of MVR is one of the best in recent history; caramel tart, flambéed bananas, Sugar Puffs.
Power's Distiller's Cut	43.2%	£10
If you've ever been in a pub anywhere, you've seen this. Famous and rightly so. Cereal, pears and Kinder Bueno.
Slane	40%	£10
Soft, easy-going and mild, a great breakfast blend.
Tullamore DEW	40%	£10
Distinctly soft, stewed peaches and apricots, grassy and cereal.
Tullamore DEW / 1980s Presentation	40%	£12.5
More pot still in the blend, yet still softer and more rounded than the modern iteration.

JAPANESE
SINGLE MALT

Ichiro's Malt Chichibu 2018 London Edition	56.5%	£40
A one-off bottling from the seemingly-invincible Chichibu distillery. This is elegant and delicate, but with a steely backbone.
Ichiro's Malt Chichibu 2019 London Edition	48.5%	£40
Softer than the 2018 edition yet more rounded. Ripe fruit, apple pie and baked cinnamon.
Nikka Miyagikyo Single Malt	45%	£18
Warm and rich, buttery and chewy, sherried and rounded.
Nikka Yoichi Single Malt	45%	£18
Nikka's proprietary smoky malt is both peaty and salty, yet subtle and nuanced.
Nikka Yoichi / 2000s Presentation	43%	£19
Slightly younger and lighter than its more recent counterpart, but the signature Yoichi smoke and spice are ever-present.
Suntory Hakushu 12yr	43%	£24
The first "international" Japanese single malt that showed the world what the country was capable of producing. Bold, grassy and nutty, with hints of applewood smoke.

JAPANESE
SINGLE MALT

Suntory Hakushu Distiller's Reserve	43%	£17
Created to cover the increasing demand of the 12-year-old, this is younger but still has the warming, smoky, honeyed characteristics of the original.
Suntory Yamazaki 12yr	43%	£21
Delicate and sweet, notes of cloves and assam tea, with candied lemon peels and a hint of toasted sugar cane.

JAPANESE

PURE MALT

Mars Lamigo Monkey Yokoso!!	48%	£18
A limited edition named after one of Taiwan's best baseball teams and rumoured to have a small amount of Tobermory blended in, this is full of cereal and ripe blackberries.
Mars Maltage Cosmo	43%	£18
Shinshu distillery's flagship whisky, oaky and fruity, Werthers Originals and a touch of milk chocolate.
Nikka Pure Malt Black	43%	£18
Smoky and sweet, a discontinued blended malt from both Yoichi and Miyagikyo.
Nikka Pure Malt Red	43%	£18
Fruity and soft, predominantly Miyagikyo with a touch of Yoichi.
Nikka Pure Malt White	43%	£21
Peaty and salty, the rarest of the triplets and with the heaviest Yoichi influence.
Nikka Taketsuru Pure Malt	43%	£16
A wonderfully complex whisky named after the company's founder. Dairy Milk, black pepper and coffee.

JAPANESE

PURE MALT

Nikka Taketsuru Pure Malt 17yr	43%	£25
Incredibly rare and much sought-after, woody and sweet with notes of cacao and pepper.
Nikka Taketsuru Pure Malt 21yr	43%	£46
Winner of World's Best Blended Malt back in 2010, it has more pronounced coffee and chocolate and has a remarkable length.
Yamazakura 963 8yr	59%	£17
A fantastic cask strength offering from Sasa-no-kawa distillery. Floral, honeyed, slightly orangey, with a big alcohol spicy backbone.

JAPANESE

SINGLE GRAIN

Nikka Coffey Grain	45%	£16
Buttery and sweet, notes of citrus. Like drinking a lemon cheesecake.
Nikka Coffey Malt	45%	£16
Technically a grain whisky due to its production method, but using all malted barley, this is a truly unique drop. Lighter in style than a traditional single malt but with all the cereal characteristics.
Suntory The Chita	43%	£16
Sugar Puffs, honey and brown sugar, citrusy on the palate and a touch of melon.

JAPANESE
BLENDED

Hatozaki Blended	40%	£11
Super light and easy-drinking, this is a proper breakfast dram!
Mars Fubuki 2018	40%	£18
Translating to “snow storm”, this is clean and light and fruity.
Mars Tsunagu Blended Whisky	46%	£18
Created for high-end Japanese department store Isetan, it is lightly peated, giving subtle bacon on the palate, alongside uncooked dough, cherry blossom and liquorice.
Nikka From The Barrel	51.4%	£15
The go-to Japanese whisky, spicy and punchy, fruity and malty; a great all-rounder.
Suntory Hibiki Japanese Harmony	43%	£16
Arguably also the go-to Japanese whisky, but more soft and sweet. Orchard fruits, buttery pastry and brown sugar.
Suntory Toki		£11
Suntory's other blended whisky - made with more Chita and Hakushu while Hibiki favours Yamazaki - this is an easy sipper with hints of spice and rounded sweetness.

WORLD
AUSTRALIA

Starward	43%	£15
Australia has a burgeoning domestic whisky industry but very few make it internationally. Starward's flagship malt is rich and sherried with hints of poached pear.

CANADA

Crown Royal Northern Harvest Rye	45%	£15
An approachable, delicate dram. Controversially voted World's Best Whisky in Jim Murray's Whisky Bible in 2016.
Gooderham & Worts 17yr Little Trinity	45%	£16
A blend of three grains - corn, rye, & wheat - gives this whisky unrivalled depth and complexity.
Lot 40 Rye	43%	£10
A light and friendly whisky, hints of coriander, white pepper and figs.
J. P. Wiser's Dissertation	46.1%	£14
A very rye-forward blend, this boasts rich, ripe cherries, caramel, vanilla and nutmeg.
Whistlepig 10yr Rye	50%	£18
Distilled in Canada but aged in Vermont, this 100% rye whisky brings clove, menthol and baking spices.
Whistlepig 12yr Old World Cask Finish	43%	£25
Aged in three different styles of wine cask- madeira, sauternes, port - this is layer after layer of flavour! Sponge cake, marzipan, raisins galore.

WORLD
DENMARK

Stauning 2013 Young Rye	50.1%	£18
Only three years old, this has plenty character. Lots of heat, cereals, a hint of acetone, freshly baked bread.

ENGLAND

Adnams Triple Malt	47%	£11
Predominantly wheat grain, but also barley and oats in the mash bill. Complex and youthful, cinnamon porridge, gingerbread and pepper. A great introduction into whisky from the beer-makers.
The Lakes The Whiskymaker's Reserve No. 4 Single Malt	52%	£17
Balanced, refined and lengthy. Finished in oloroso, PX & red wine casks, this unsurprisingly is nutty, jammy and honeyed.
The Norfolk Farmers Single Grain	45%	£17
A multi-grain offering made in the Cotswolds, it is soft and warming with hints of stone fruit.
The Norfolk Parched Single Grain	45%	£17
An entirely different grain mash-bill to the farmers, this is buttery popcorn and salted liquorice.
