Their signature malt, aged in bourbon, oloroso and Pedro Ximenez casks.
Glenkinchie 12yr	43%	£6 / £12
"The Edinburgh Malt"'s flagship whisky is light and grassy with hints of florality.

SCOTCH
HIGHLAND

Aberfeldy 12yr	40%	£6 / £12
A great all-rounder of a single malt, it leads with subtle sherried oak and a hint of peat.
Aberfeldy 16yr	40%	£7.5 / £15
Butterscotch and toffee on the nose, stewed fruits and barmbrack on the palate.
Aberfeldy 21yr	40%	£11.5 / £23
Lots of honey and vanilla on the palate, with a long, lingering finish.
Allt A' Mhullin 15yr / Roslin Distillers	50.3%	£10.5 / £21
Distilled at Ben Nevis and the last cask chosen by the late distillery manager, it is rich and buttery, Werthers Originals and oak.
Ardmore 12yr 2008 / Bramble Whisky Co	50%	£9 / £18
Another excellent bottling from our friends in Edinburgh, this is aged in an ex-Islay cask and has notes of soft peat, biscuits and spice.
Ardmore 7yr / Elixir Distillers & Shinanoya	58.3%	£9 / £18
Finished in a Laphroaig Quarter Cask, this Japan-only release is cask strength, peaty and powerful.

HIGHLAND

Ardnamurchan 2014 AD/11:14 CK.339	69.4%	£10.5 / £21
A single cask release distilled in 2014, the year the distillery was founded, and since had been aged in a single first-fill Oloroso sherry butt. Sweet & syrupy with lots of milk chocolate, leather and charred oak.
Ben Nevis 10yr	46%	£7 / £14
Distilled at the foot of the mountain, their signature malt is sherried with notes of chocolate and coffee.
Clynelish 14yr	46%	£6.5 / £13
The “second” distillery of Brora, Clynelish’s famous style is big, waxy and unctuous, and their 14-year-old is the diamond.

Rabbit Hole Heigold	47.5%	£7 / £14
Lots of rye character provides a solid backbone to classic vanilla treacle bourbon notes.
Rowan's Creek	50.05%	£7.5 / £15
The "younger sister" of Noah's Mill, spicy and rye-heavy, with orange, cherries and oak.
Stagg Jr.	66.05%	£8 / £16
Big and powerful, short and sharp, punchy and bold, Stagg Jr. is inimitable.
Van Winkle Special Reserve 12yr Lot B	45.2%	£15 / £30
The oft-overlooked runt of the Pappy litter, it is a spectacular example of how to age bourbon for over 10 years without over-casking it.

AMERICAN
BOURBON

Weller 12yr	45%	£10 / £20
Remarkably similar to the Van Winkle 12, the only real difference is the warehousing. A steal.
Weller Antique 107	53.5%	£10 / £20
The exact same mash bill as the Pappy Van Winkle range, just barreled from a different part of the warehouse. A real connoisseur's treat.
Weller C.Y.P.B.	47.5%	£10 / £20
Monikered "Craft Your Perfect Bourbon, this was a crowdsourced idea, gathering the opinions of over 100000 bourbon fans to choose their favourite style.
Weller Full Proof	57%	£10 / £20
Fruiter than its brothers, and surprisingly not too hot, considering its strength.
Weller Single Barrel	48.5%	£10 / £20
Cherry, mint, coffee and cinnamon, each selected barrel is slightly different, and this one has hits of caramel.
Wild Turkey 101	50.5%	£5.5 / £11
Aged for at least 6 years and bottled just below cask strength, this has plenty spice, hints of toffee and caramel.

AMERICAN
BOURBON

Wild Turkey Longbranch	43%	£6 / £12
A lighter, easy-drinking example from the Wild Turkey distillery. Alright, alright, alright!
Wild Turkey Rare Breed	58.4%	£7 / £14
A special casking of Wild Turkey that fits any occasion.
Woodford Reserve	43.2%	£5 / £10
Mixed nuts, autumn leaves, blackberries and sawdust.
Woodford Reserve Double Oaked	43.2%	£7 / £14
Dairy Milk bars, molasses, flint and toffee.

AMERICAN

RYE

Bulleit	45%	£5.5 / £11
A young and spicy all-rounder, notes of red berries.
Catoctin Creek Roundstone Rye	46%	£7 / £14
A fresh Virginia rye with hints of spearmint and ginger.
FEW	46.5%	£8 / £16
A well-rounded offering from Chicago's FEW distillery, this has hints of arrack and unripe banana.
High West Double Rye!	46%	£7 / £14
A combination of a young, 2-year-old rye blended with a hint of 16-year-old for depth.
Michter's Single Barrel Straight Rye	42.4%	£7 / £14
A great value rye, bold and rounded, hints of dry curacao and chamomile.
Old Overholt	40%	£6 / £12
Very soft and light, mild and delicate.

AMERICAN
RYE

Old Overholt 114 Proof	57%	£7.5 / £15
Only released in two US states, the cult favourite gets given a turbocharge!
Pikesville / 2000s Presentation	40%	£8 / £16
This is a discontinued bottling that is very different to the current Pikesville - this is the lighter, more approachable version of what is now Rittenhouse.
Rittenhouse	50%	£6 / £12
The stalwart. Great balance, good heat, fantastic for every use,
Sazerac	45%	£6 / £12
Fun and fruity, candied ginger, citrus peels.
Sazerac 18yr 2017	45%	£15 / £30
Drier than the 2016, great length, still that signature spice and oak.
Sazerac 18yr 2021	45%	£15 / £30
Dusty and aged, but significantly more controlled than previous years, this has much more balance.

AMERICAN
RYE

Thomas H. Handy Sazerac 2016	63.1%	£15 / £30
The frequently overlooked runt of Buffalo Trace's Antique Collection, it is the youngest of the batch but the most consistent. Strong, spicy and long.
Thomas H. Handy Sazerac 2017	63.6%	£15 / £30
Long, fruity and creamy. Waves of toffee and coconut.
Thomas H. Handy Sazerac 2018	63.4%	£15 / £30
Almost unanimously everyone's favourite of the 2018 BTACs, outperforming even the Stagg and the Weller. Long and buttery, clover honeyed and sweet.
Thomas H. Handy Sazerac 2021	64.75%	£15 / £30
Chunky, slightly sweet, definitely spicy, it's young, potent, and brilliant.
Woodford Reserve	45.2%	£6.5 / £13
A rye-dominant mashbill from the stalwart. Citrussy, bright and peppery.

AMERICAN
TENNESSEE

Jack Daniel's No. 7	40%	£5 / £10
You know what this tastes like; banana bread and regret.
Jack Daniel's Single Barrel	45%	£6 / £12
This famously varies from barrel to barrel, but will always have that signature oaky banana Jack Daniel style.
Uncle Nearest 9yr 1856	50%	£7 / £14
Bonded from an undisclosed distillery (Dickel), the 1856 version claims to hark from a recipe found a decade before Jack Daniels began. Classic Tennessee style, complex and sweet.

AMERICAN
CORN

Balcones Baby Blue	46%	£6.5 / £13
A young corn whiskey from this pioneering Texas distillery, rich and buttery.
Mellow Corn	50%	£6 / £12
Heaven Hill's bonded corn whiskey, a firm bartenders' favourite. Waxy, with a controlled heat and good body.

AMERICAN
SINGLE MALT

Balcones Single Malt	53%	£8 / £16
Made exclusively from Texan malted barley and barreled in ex-bourbon casks, this really rivals anything made in Scotland.
Westland Peated	46%	£8 / £16
Even rarer than an American single malt is a peated American single malt made in Seattle! Similar to a maritime Islay, it is deep and complex.
Westland Sherry Wood	46%	£8 / £16
Nutty and woody as you'd expect from a sherry wood, with very pronounced toasted hazelnuts on the finish.

AMERICAN WHEAT

Bernheim Original	45%	£8 / £16
The first, and still one of the very few, straight wheat whiskeys on the market today, expect a distinct brioche note, with a nutty sweetness.
Woodford Reserve	45.2%	£6 / £12
A new addition to the Woodford family is this wheat-heavy whiskey, which also has corn, malted barley and rye in its mashbill.

AMERICAN

SOUR MASH

Michter's Original Sour Mash Whiskey	43%	£7 / £14
A mixed grain mash bill with not enough corn to be a bourbon, not enough rye to be a rye, this is a wonderful example of how different grains make up a whiskey.
Michter's Unblended American Whiskey	41.7%	£7 / £14
Aged in both new and used casks so technically not a bourbon, it is corn heavy but with additional woody vanilla notes.
Smooth Ambler Old Scout American Whiskey	49.5%	£6.5 / £13
Aged in both new and used casks, and with whiskeys from both Indiana and Tennessee, this is a softer version of its brother.
Smooth Ambler Old Scout 107	53.5%	£7.5 / £15
A blend of two whiskeys, one a bourbon, and one aged in ex-bourbon casks, and bottled at 107 proof, it has plenty pepper spice, gingerbread and nutmeg.
Wild Turkey Forgiven	45.5%	£8.5 / £17
A mix of both bourbon and rye whiskeys, canonically initially blended by accident, but the result was so good they bottled it.

IRISH
SINGLE MALT

Bushmills 10yr	40%	£5.5 / £11
Stone fruits, brazil nuts and marzipan.
Bushmills 12yr Distillery Reserve	40%	£7 / £14
Peaches, apricot jam and Weetabix!
Bushmills 16yr	40%	£8.5 / £17
Matured in bourbon, port and sherry casks, it is full of ripe strawberries, Ceylon cinnamon and tree bark.
Dunville's Very Rare 12yr PX Cask	46%	£8.5 / £17
A recreation of a mothballed whiskey, this is full of raisins, crème brûlée and clove.
Knappogue Castle 12yr	43%	£7 / £14
A now-permanent expression in the range, this is apricots, peaches and warm spice.
Locke's 8yr	40%	£7 / £14
Delicate stone fruits and malt make way for panna cotta and beeswax.

IRISH
SINGLE MALT

Method & Madness Single Malt	46%	£8 / £16
Made at Middleton's "micro" distillery, finished in French limousin casks, notes of peanut butter, banana and toffee.
Sexton Single Malt	40%	£5.5 / £11
A great all-rounder, nutty, sweet, malty, balanced.
Single Malt Irish Whiskey #1 13yr Batch 2 / TBWC	48.4%	£8 / £16
The famous "My Lovely Horse" bottling, this is a firm Swift favourite. Citrussy, bright, stone fruits, long.
Teeling Single Malt	46%	£7 / £14
Aged in five different styles of cask so surprisingly delicate, aromas of muscat grapes and a genteel florality.
Tyrconnell Port Finish	46%	£8.5 / £17
Woody and bright, but with a rich, jammy palate.

IRISH
SINGLE POT STILL

Blue Spot	58.7%	£8 / £16
7 years old and drawn from a variety of bourbon, sherry, and Madeira casks. Creamy & nutty with a lingering spiciness.
Green Spot	40%	£6 / £12
Cereal notes, hints of Softmints, plenty of vanilla.
Green Spot Château Montelena Finish	46%	£7.5 / £15
Utilising previously-used Zinfandel casks to create a sweet and complex tropical whiskey.
Green Spot Léoville-Barton Finish	46%	£7.5 / £15
Warm, dry red fruits make way for classic cereal vanilla familiarity.
Method & Madness Single Pot Still	46%	£8 / £16
Uniquely finished in chestnut wood to give a dry chocolate note, alongside powdered ginger and delicate tannins.
Midleton Barry Crockett's Legacy	46%	£12.5 / £25
A wonderful sign off for Midleton's previous Master Distiller, Barry Crockett, it is a proper showpiece of Irish whiskey.

IRISH
SINGLE POT STILL

Power's John's Lane	46%	£7.5 / £15
Oakly and sherried, wonderfully complex, a fantastic distillate.
Redbreast 12yr	40%	£6.5 / £13
The benchmark Single Pot Still Irish whiskey. Full of sherry, red berries, vanilla and peaches.
Redbreast 12yr Cask Strength	57.2%	£8.5 / £17
Full-bodied, oily, and just generally bigger and more than the 12-year-old.
Redbreast 15yr	46%	£8.5 / £17
A wholly different animal to its younger brother, it is longer, more tropical and creamier.
Redbreast 21yr	46%	£12.5 / £25
A sweet-tart tropical bomb! Passionfruit, guava and nectarines everywhere.
Redbreast Lustau	46%	£7 / £14
Candied orange peel, Sherbet Dip-Dabs and Christmas mince pies.

IRISH
SINGLE POT STILL

Yellow Spot	46%	£8 / £16
Madagascar vanilla, apricot jam and frangipane.

IRISH
SINGLE GRAIN

Method & Madness Single Grain	46%	£6.5 / £13
Oaky and sweet, soft marzipan and pomelo.
Teeling Single Grain	46%	£6 / £12
Corn husks and wheat fields, but with a hint of lingonberry and milky porridge.

IRISH

BLENDED

Bushmills Black Bush	40%	£5 / £10
A great versatile dram; clean and nutty, mixable or neat.
Jameson	40%	£5 / £10
Accounting for more than half of all Irish whiskey produced, notes of cut grass, breakfast pastries and apples.
Jameson 18yr	40%	£11 / £22
A harmonious, well-rounded dram; soft and delicate but wonderfully complex.
Jameson Black Barrel	40%	£6 / £12
Finished in extra-charred barrels (hence the name), this gives additional toasty notes and body, and a delicate coconut finish.
Jameson Caskmates Stout Edition	40%	£5 / £10
A range of coffee and chocolate notes swirl alongside classic grassy Jameson.
J. J. Corry The Kelly / Milroy's of Soho	50%	£8.5 / £17
An incredibly rare blend made for our friends round the corner, made of one grain and three single malts, one of which harks back to 2003. Stunningly balanced and rounded.

IRISH
BLENDED

Midleton Very Rare 2020	40%	£11 / £22
The 37th Edition of MVR is one of the best in recent history; caramel tart, flambéed bananas, Sugar Puffs.
Power's Distiller's Cut	43.2%	£5 / £10
If you've ever been in a pub anywhere, you've seen this. Famous and rightly so. Cereal, pears and Kinder Bueno.
Slane	40%	£5 / £10
Soft, easy-going and mild, a great breakfast blend.
Tullamore DEW	40%	£5 / £10
Distinctly soft, stewed peaches and apricots, grassy and cereal.
Tullamore DEW / 1980s Presentation	40%	£7 / £14
More pot still in the blend, yet still softer and more rounded than the modern iteration.
Tullamore DEW 12yr	40%	£7.5 / £15
A great all-rounder, easy drinking but complex. Soft and approachable, dried apricots and fennel.

JAPANESE

SINGLE MALT

Ichiro's Malt Chichibu London Edition 2021	51.5%	£20 / £40
Incredibly limited edition from one of Japan's most sought-after distilleries. All bourbon cask and all special, with a hint of Caol Ila-esque peat.
Nikka Miyagikyo Single Malt	45%	£8 / £16
Warm and rich, buttery and chewy, sherried and rounded.
Nikka Yoichi Single Malt	45%	£8 / £16
Nikka's proprietary smoky malt is both peaty and salty, yet subtle and nuanced.
Nikka Yoichi / 2000s Presentation	43%	£9 / £18
Slightly younger and lighter than its more recent counterpart, but the signature Yoichi smoke and spice are ever-present.
Suntory Hakushu Distiller's Reserve	43%	£8 / £16
Created to cover the increasing demand of the 12-year-old, this is younger but still has the warming, smoky, honeyed characteristics of the original.
Suntory Yamazaki 12yr	43%	£9 / £18
Delicate and sweet, notes of cloves and assam tea, with candied lemon peels and a hint of toasted sugar cane.

JAPANESE

PURE MALT

Ichiro's Malt Wine Wood Reserve	46.5%	£9 / £18
Intense red berries immediately on the palate, followed by mellow nuttiness and balanced umami.
Mars Maltage Cosmo	43%	£8 / £16
Shinshu distillery's flagship whisky, oaky and fruity, Werthers Originals and a touch of milk chocolate.
Nikka Pure Malt Black	43%	£9 / £18
Smoky and sweet, a discontinued blended malt from both Yoichi and Miyagikyo.
Nikka Pure Malt Red	43%	£9 / £18
Fruity and soft, predominantly Miyagikyo with a touch of Yoichi.
Nikka Taketsuru Pure Malt	43%	£7.5 / £15
A wonderfully complex whisky named after the company's founder. Dairy Milk, black pepper and coffee.
Nikka Taketsuru Pure Malt 21yr	43%	£25 / £50
Winner of World's Best Blended Malt back in 2010, it has more pronounced coffee and chocolate and has a remarkable length.

JAPANESE

SINGLE GRAIN

Nikka Coffey Grain	45%	£7 / £14
Buttery and sweet, notes of citrus. Like drinking a lemon cheesecake.
Nikka Coffey Malt	45%	£7 / £14
Technically a grain whisky due to its production method, but using all malted barley, this is a truly unique drop. Lighter in style than a traditional single malt but with all the cereal characteristics.
Suntory The Chita	43%	£7 / £14
Sugar Puffs, honey and brown sugar, citrusy on the palate and a touch of melon.

JAPANESE
BLENDED

Hatozaki Blended	40%	£5.5 / £11
Super light and easy-drinking, this is a proper breakfast dram!
Hatozaki 12yr Umeshu Cask Finish	46%	£8 / £16
Finished in plum wine casks, this unique dram has notes of lavender, lychee and cherry blossom.
Mars Fubuki 2018	40%	£8.5 / £17
Translating to “snow storm”, this is clean and light and fruity.
Nikka From The Barrel	51.4%	£7 / £14
The go-to Japanese whisky, spicy and punchy, fruity and malty; a great all-rounder.
Suntory Hibiki Japanese Harmony	43%	£8 / £16
Arguably also the go-to Japanese whisky, but more soft and sweet. Orchard fruits, buttery pastry and brown sugar.
Suntory Toki		£5.5 / £11
Suntory's other blended whisky - made with more Chita and Hakushu while Hibiki favours Yamazaki - this is an easy sipper with hints of spice and rounded sweetness.

WORLD
AUSTRALIA

Starward Nova	41%	£6.5 / £13
Australia has a burgeoning domestic whisky industry but very few make it internationally. Starward's flagship malt is rich and sherried with hints of poached pear.

CANADA

Crown Royal Northern Harvest Rye	45%	£6.5 / £13
An approachable, delicate dram. Controversially voted World's Best Whisky in Jim Murray's Whisky Bible in 2016.
Gooderham & Worts 17yr Little Trinity	45%	£7 / £14
A blend of three grains - corn, rye, & wheat - gives this whisky unrivalled depth and complexity.
J. P. Wiser's Dissertation	46.1%	£6.5 / £13
A very rye-forward blend, this boasts rich, ripe cherries, caramel, vanilla and nutmeg.
Lot 40 Cask Strength	56.1%	£8 / £16
Menthol spice, szechuan peppercorn and toasted grains. Delectable!
Whistlepig 6yr Piggyback Rye	48.28%	£6.5 / £13
A superb everyday dram, plenty heat but mature enough to stand up on its own.
Whistlepig 10yr Rye	50%	£8 / £16
Distilled in Canada but aged in Vermont, this 100% rye whisky brings clove, menthol and baking spices.

WORLD
DENMARK

Stauning 2013 Young Rye	50.1%	£8 / £16
Only three years old, this has plenty character. Lots of heat, cereals, a hint of acetone, freshly baked bread.

WORLD
ENGLAND

Adnams Triple Malt	47%	£6 / £12
Predominantly wheat grain, but also barley and oats in the mash bill. Complex and youthful, cinnamon porridge, gingerbread and pepper. A great introduction into whisky from the beer-makers.
Cotswolds Founder's Choice	49.1%	£7.5 / £15
Beautifully rounded, elegant toffee and butter caramels.
The Lakes The Whiskymaker's Reserve No. 4 Single Malt	52%	£7.5 / £15
Balanced, refined and lengthy. Finished in oloroso, PX & red wine casks, this unsurprisingly is nutty, jammy and honeyed.
The Norfolk Parched Single Grain	45%	£7.5 / £15
This is buttery popcorn and salted liquorice, and very approachable.
White Peak Wire Works	50.3%	£9 / £18
Slightly peated, reminiscent of a youthful Ardmore or Highland Park, this is a wonderful first release from the brand new distillery.
